

Hermetically Sealed Systems in LDS Thought

bwv549

A hermetic seal is one which is entirely airtight. A hermetically sealed system of thought is, by analogy, one which is cutoff from, or virtually impervious to, outside ways of thinking.

In a religious context, a hermetically sealed system of thought may be created when a person accepts one or more assumptions (sometimes accepted unawares) which then prevent them from ever arriving at a conclusion outside the prescribed system of thought.

Hermetically sealed systems of thought are frequently found in totalistic groups that use thought-reform techniques, particularly “milieu control”, “mystical manipulation”, “sacred science”, “loading the language”, “doctrine over person”, and “dispensing of existence” to exert influence over their membership.

It is easier to spot hermetically sealed systems of thought in other groups. Here are two straightforward examples from the Jehovah’s Witnesses:

Assumed: To love God means to entirely avoid communication with a former Jehovah’s Witness.

Innaccessible: Exposure to criticism from former Jehovah’s Witnesses.

Example:

...should we listen to apostates, read their literature, or examine their Web sites on the Internet? If we love God and the truth, we will not do so. We should not allow apostates into our homes or even greet them, for such actions would make us ‘sharers in their wicked works.’ (2 John 9-11) (source)

Assumed: You will miss the good and only see bad if you focus on the flaws of the organization or leaders.

Innaccessible: Aspects of the organization or the actions or teachings of some leaders may be ethically deficient.

Example:

Every person in this organization—every one of Jehovah’s Witnesses including the governing body—we’re all imperfect and thus we are subject to making mistakes. Which means that if you look hard enough, all you will see instead of seeing these amazing things that Jehovah is accomplishing and our tremendous privilege of being part of it, all we are going to see is the errors of men. But when we focus on the good, on the guidance and loving support that we’ve received, aren’t we moved with appreciation to cleave to this body of fellow worshipers. And just look at what Jehovah is accomplishing by means of his imperfect servants. There is no other organization on earth providing spiritual food like the one that we belong to. When we look at all of this, how could we possibly let the failings of just a few people undermine this overwhelming proof of Jehovah’s backing? (From the 2016 “Remain Loyal To Jehovah” regional convention)

List of hermetically sealed systems of LDS thought which follow:

1. Do not seek revelation on that which contradicts the Brethren.
2. Revelations contradicting the Brethren are not from God.
3. All answers to prayer are correct.
4. Follow Moroni's Promise to know that the Book of Mormon is true.
5. Only the ignorant and proud disagree with accepted LDS doctrine.

A Hermetically Sealed System (#3)

All answers to prayer are correct

Somewhere along the way Matt said, "Why did we feel after praying about it that the right road was the proper one to take, the correct road to take, and it wasn't?"

I think that the Lord, his wish for us there, and his answer to our prayer, was to get us on the right road as quickly as possible with some reassurance, with some understanding that we were on the right road and we didn't have to worry about it.

A Hermetically Sealed System (#5)

Only the ignorant and proud disagree with accepted LDS doctrine

Someone varies with accepted LDS doctrine.

Is the person extremely knowledgeable on the topic?

Yes

They are proud and self-vaunting and read by the lamp of their own conceit.

No

They are hopelessly ignorant due to their indolence and sloth.

Beware the lazy and the proud—both are ignorant.

Among the Latter-day Saints, the preaching of false doctrines disguised as truths of the gospel, may be expected from people of two classes, and practically from these only; they are:

First—The hopelessly ignorant, whose lack of intelligence is due to their indolence and sloth, who make but feeble effort, if indeed any at all, to better themselves by reading and study; those who are afflicted with a dread disease that may develop into an incurable malady—laziness.

Second—The proud and self-vaunting ones, who read by the lamp of their own conceit; who interpret by rules of their own contriving; who have become a law unto themselves, and so pose as the sole judges of their own doings. More dangerously ignorant than the first.

Beware of the lazy and the proud.
