well known as early as Job 19: 23. | leave her husband." Num. 21: 14. Exod. 17: 14,) were written most anciently on skins, on linen, on TO THE CHURCHES ABROAD cotton cloth, and the reed papyrus; and AND NEAR BY. subsequently on parchment. The leaves As many false reports are circulated be found.

Books being written upon very flexible materials, were rolled round a stick; and, if they were very long, round two, from the two extremities. The reader unrolled the book to the place which he wanted, and rolled it up again when he had read it, Luke 4: 17-20; whence the name megeelau (Heb.) a volume, or thing roiled up, Ps. 40: 7. Is. 34: 4. Ezek. 2: 9. 2 K. 19: 14. Ezra 6: 2. The leaves thus rolled round the stick, which has been mentioned, and bound with a string, could be easily sealed, Is. 29: 11. Dan. which were inscribed on tablets of wood, lead, brass, or ivory, were connected to-

Inasmuch as the public mind has been unjustly abused through the fallacy of Dr. Bennett's letters, we make an extract on the subject of marriage, showing the rule of the church on this important matter. The extract is from the Book of Doctrine and Covenants, and is the only rule allowed by the church.

"All legal contracts of marriage made before a person is baptized into this church, should be held sacred and fulfilled. lnasmuch as this church of Christ has been reproached with the crime of fornication, and polygamy: we declare that tized contrary to the will of her husband, decorum and not see God.

"Books, (which are mentioned as very neither is it lawful to influence her to

were written over in small columns, call- to delay the building of the Temple of ed delautote, (Heb.) Jer. 36: 23. If the God at Nauvoo, we take this public methbook were large, it was of course formed od of stating that the saints are constant. of a number of skins, of a number of ly engaged in rearing this great house pieces of linen and cotton cloth, or of pa- for their salvation, by tithing and donapyrus, or parchment, connected together. tions-according to the commandments; The leaves were rarely written over on and in order that the work may progress both sides, Ezek. 2: 9. Zech. 5: 1. more speedily; we call upon the church-Whether the lines were written as in the es abroad and near by, to bring or send Sigean inscription, and in the Etruscan us their tithes or donations, that we may inscriptions, might yet be determined, if | be enabled to go on prosperously and finthe stones mentioned Josh. 8: 32. could ish it in an acceptable time to the Lord. The work hands upon this house need provisions and clothes, and the brethren, these plentiful times, have these things and other means, and can, if they will, help us. Brethren remember the commands of the Lord and help fulfil them.

ALPHEUS CUTLER, REYNOLDS CAHOON, ELIAS HIGBEE,

Building Committee.

Nauvoo, Aug. 25, 1842.

NOTICE.

From the circumstances growing out 12: 4. Rev. 5: 1. 6: 7. Those books, of the pretended exposures of John C. Bennett, a rumor has gone abroad that the Nauvoo House has ceased to progress. gether by rings at the back, through This is therefore designed to inform the which a rod was passed to carry them by. brethren of the churches throughout the United States and elsewhere, that the work is still progressing as in times past. It is true we have little or no means to carry on the work, nor have we at any time had a sufficiency of means to go on with that rapidity we would wish. But if no preventing providence we will progress with the work until its final completion, and hereby call upon the brethren to take stock in the house if they have not, that the hands of the laborers may be strengthened thereby.

GEORGE MILLER, P. N. H. A.

The Hebrew priests, when they apwe believe, that one man should have peared before the Lord, performed the one wife; and one woman, but one hus- service with naked feet, a symbol of venband, except in case of death, when ei- eration. See Exodus 3: 5 .- Josh 5: 15. ther is at liberty to marry again. It is Now a days the world's priests wear not right to persuade a woman to be bap- boots or shoes well blacked as an act of